Dr. W. F. Lang Returns From Navy Service

Dr. William F. A. Lang has returned to his home and practice at 928 Linden St., after being placed on inactive duty by the U. S. Navy, following service as a dental officer with the rank of Lieutenant.

The local dentist entered service in July, 1943, and was first stationed at the Naval Training Center at Sampson, N. Y., then assigned to the 111th Navy Construction Battalion of the Seabees as a dental officer. He served one year in the Leyte Gulf area, in the Philippines.

Dr. Lang is the father of two children, Anthony and Mary Ann. His mother, Mrs. Bert W. Lang, resided at 1328 W. Union Blvd. Two brothers, Albert W. Lang Jr. and Jerome R. Lang, were also recently discharged from the service and have returned to their homes in Bethlehem. DEC 18 1945
