

Pen Argyl Girl Is Married to Service Man 1943

Trexler, Barbara Harris
Trexler, Charles

Miss Barbara Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Harris, of Mountain Avenue, Pen Argyl, last evening became the bride of Sgt. Robert Trexler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trexler, of Wind Gap, in a pretty Christmas candlelight wedding ceremony conducted in Zion Methodist Church, Pen Argyl.

The double ring ceremony was in charge of the Rev. Thomas R. Jeffery, pastor of the Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church of Bethlehem, an uncle of the bride; who was assisted by the Rev. Paul M. Harris, of Tannersville, a cousin of the bride and the Rev. Charles E. Wonderly, pastor of the Zion Church.

The bride was attended, by her sister, Miss Kathryn Harris, of Pen Argyl, as the maid-of-honor. The bridegroom was attended by Frederick Male, of Pen Argyl, as the best man. Ushers were Clifford Jeffery, an uncle of the bride, of Pen Argyl and George Pritchard of Wind Gap.

Music for the occasion was presented by Ray Mutton, church organist, who presented a brief recital prior to the ceremony and played during the ceremony. Miss Ruth Lakey of Pen Argyl was the vocal soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in an ivory brocaded damask gown with a Juliet cap with seedpearls and a finger tip veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and white carnations.

The maid-of-honor was attired in a pink silk net gown with a shoulder length veil and carried a colonial bouquet.

The mother of the bride was attired in a lavender colored dress with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

After the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the parents of the bride, after which the couple went on a short wedding trip. The bride was attired in an aqua and white dress with a corsage of yellow roses for her going-away outfit. The couple will make their home with the parents of the bride.

The bride attended the Pen Argyl High School, where she was a member of the Girls Glee Club and a member of the Tri-Hi-Y Club. She is active in the Zion Methodist Church and Sunday School, being a member of the Senior Choir, a member of the Youth Fellowship, a member of the Women's Society for Christian Service. She is a member of the Pen Argyl Junior Woman's Club, serving as corresponding secretary of the Club. She is employed at the Buffalo Knitting Mill, Pen Argyl.

Sgt. Trexler is a graduate of the Pen Argyl High School, Class of 1940, where he was a member of the High School Band and a member of the Hi-Y Club. Prior to his entering the U. S. Army, he was employed by the Sterling Silk Glove Company, Bangor. He is stationed with the U. S. Army at Shreveport, La.
