

Kreidler, Henry A.

Henry A. Kreidler
Made a Corporal

AIR TRANSPORT COMMAND
BASE, KARACHI, India—Henry A.
Kreidler, the son of Mr. and Mrs.
Mark J. Kreidler, 12 East Garrison

Street, Bethlehem, Pa., was recently promoted to corporal, it was announced by Brig. Gen. William H.
Tunner, commanding general of the India-China Division, Air Transport Command.

Cpl. Kreidler joined the Army in August 1943 and has been in this division since December, 1944. He is serving as a clerk-typist. Previous to joining the Army Cpl. Kreid-ler was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company, as a clerk. He attended Liberty High School.

The India-China Division, whose war-time task was the ferrying of vital war materials to Allied armies in China by air, is now engaged in the peace-time mission of homeward troop movements

Oct. 2, 1945