

Manley, John A.

RECEIVES CAPTAINCY

Capt. John A. Manley, U. S. Army, whose promotion to his present rank was announced a few days ago, has returned to Fort Lewis, Washington, after spending a fifteen-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Manley, 1422 West Market Street.

MAR 18 1943

CAPT. JOHN A. MANLEY

Capt. Manley was called into active duty and sent to Camp Croft, S. C. in January of 1942 with the rank of second lieutenant. In April of that year he was sent to the Camp Forrest, Tenn., where he received his first lieutenant's bars, and in August he was transferred to Fort Lewis. He commands the regimental headquarters there.

The young soldier is a graduate of Bethlehem High and of Lehigh University, class of 1938. Until his call to active duty he was in the employ of E. I. DuPont DeNemours, Wilmington, Del.
