

Groman, Henry N.
Mary

Sheriff's Son Naval Attache At Ottawa

OCT 16 1945

Lieut. Commander Henry N. Groman, son of Sheriff and Mrs. William C. Groman, this city, with five years of service in the Navy behind him, has been named assistant naval attache at the United States embassy in Ottawa, Canada. Mrs. Groman and their son, Henry N. Jr., have taken up their residence in the Canadian capital.

Commander Groman, since his return from active service with a naval intelligence group in India, China and the Orient, has been acting as liaison officer to C.O.P.C.

LT.-CMDR. HENRY GROMAN

and Western Air Command in Vancouver. He enters on his new duties, an important assignment, next Friday. The commander had a birthday yesterday, his 36th.

Native of Bethlehem, Commander Groman graduated from Bethlehem High School and got his degree at Temple University. He taught for three years, 1935-38, in a Japanese university at Yamachuchi, Japan.

Commander Groman married Miss Florence Richardson, of Bryn Mawr. His sister, Mary Groman, was recently honorably discharged from the WAVES. She served at Corpus Christi, Texas.

October 16, 1945