

Creitz, Elmer E.

Pen Argyl Man Becomes Army Warrant Officer

Carlton E. Creitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Creitz, of Babbitt Avenue, Pen Argyl, doing duty in the U. S. Army Air Force has been promoted from the rank of corporal to the commissioned rank of a warrant officer in the U. S. Army Air Corps.

Warrant Officer Creitz is the husband of the former Miss Gertrude Fehr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Fehr of North Harding Avenue, Pen Argyl.

He entered the U. S. Army service on December 30, 1942 and prior to serving at Wichita, Kan., where he recently received his commission, he was stationed with the First Army Air Force at Camp Springs, Washington, D. C. JAN 30 1945

He is a graduate of the Pen Argyl High School and a graduate of Lehigh University, Bethlehem. Prior to entering the U. S. armed forces he was in the employ of Degen, Messer and Company, certified public accountants, Easton.

January 30, 1945