

Iobst, LL Jr

RETURNS TO DUTY.

Sept — 1942
L. L. Iobst, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Iobst, 535 Fourth Avenue, returned today to his duties as a signalman in the U. S. Navy. He is serving with the Atlantic patrol forces. The young sailor had been visiting here on a five-day furlough.

Wednesday morning his brother, Robert M., left for the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, where he is taking the Naval pre-flight training course. Robert enlisted some time ago and received his call to duty during last week.
