

Groeger, Joseph H.

Staff Sergeant
JUN 12 1944

Joseph H. Groeger has been advanced to the rank of Staff Sergeant U. S. Marines, according to information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Groeger of 314 West Ninth Street.

Eighteen years of age, Staff Sergeant Groeger has been a "leatherneck" since February 22, 1943, enlisting shortly after he completed his course at Liberty High School.

He received his preliminary training at Parris Island, after which he was transferred to Cherry Point, N. C., thence to Lakehurst. At present he is stationed at a West Coast base. In a recent telephone conversation from California, he notified his parents of his promotion.
