

Furchner, Harry

Harry Furchner, veteran of the ETO now stationed at Camp Campbell, Ky., recently received his Sergeant's stripes. He has served his country for two years and for a year was stationed in the European Theatre. He wears three battle stars for participating in the Battle of the Bulge, Central Europe and Battle for the Rhineland.

Sgt. Furchner was a recorder in the rolling mills of the Bethlehem Steel Company before he entered the service.

March 19, 1946