

Reynolds, Walter E.

AT XAVIER UNIVERSITY

After eight weeks of basic training at the Army Air Forces gigantic training center at Miami Beach, Fla., Aviation Student Walter E. Reynolds has arrived at Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio, for a five-months course of instruction.

Upon completion of the course, he will be classified as navigator, pilot or bombardier and after further training as an aviation cadet, will be awarded the silver wings of the Army Air Corps. He attended Liberty High School. His parents live at 848 Mechanic Street, Bethlehem.

May 24, 1943