

LaRose, Harry W.

Leaves for Basic Training

Harry W. LaRose, Jr., 737 North New Street, left this morning for Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., to begin basic training as an ensign in the U. S. Navy Reserve. A graduate of Liberty High School with the class of 1935 and of Lehigh University with the degree of chemical engineer in 1939, he was employed prior to his departure in the press forge department of the Bethlehem Steel Company plant here.

FEB 1 1943

February 1, 1943