

Lyshan, Charles

Conduct Rewarded

A former Nazareth boy, Technical Sergeant Charles Lyshan, has been awarded the Army's Good Conduct medal for exemplary fidelity and efficiency while serving in the services supply forces of the U. S. Army.

Sgt. Lyshan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Lyshan of Nazareth R. 1, was employed by the Nazareth Cement Company prior to entering the Army in 1941. He went overseas in 1943 to New Caledonia, where he is stationed with an artillery section as chief in an ordnance medium maintenance company.

His artillery shop has serviced and repaired many big guns which have thrown shells at the Japs in South Pacific operations.
