PFC. WENDELL E. SALABSKY

Marine Hurt In Guam Fight, Wife is Told

Pfc. Wendell E. Salabsky, U. S. M. C., was wounded in action while participating in the battle of Guam and has been awarded the Purple Heart, according to word received by his wife, who resides at 1501 Calypso Avenue.

The young man, who is the son of Mrs. Rose Salabsky, was wounded on July 23 and is now reported recuperating in a hospital somewhere in the Pacific area. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in December, 1942, and has been overseas nine months.

Prior to his entry into the service, Pfc. Salabsky graduated from Catholic High School and was employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company.
