

Orner, Carl A.

Father Informed
Sgt. Carl Orner
Wounded In Action

FEB 9 1945

Wounded in action on January 9, Sergeant Carl A. Orner, 21, member of an infantry unit, suffered a wound of the right side of his head, according to official information received by his father, Stanley Orner, 251 East Garrison Street.

The address of the injured soldier is 177 General Hospital, APO 517, in care of the Postmaster, New York City. According to his father, a veteran of World War I, he would appreciate mail from friends.

February 9, 1945