

Donchez, Joseph

Veteran Promoted

JAN 5 1946

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Donchez, 308 Hobart St., have been informed that their son, Joseph Donchez, was promoted to Technician Fifth Grade while stationed at Nagoya, Japan.

Cpl. Donchez was inducted three days after Christmas, 1943. He was sent to Fort Jackson, S. C., for basic and unit training and then proceeded to Camp Forrest, Tenn., where he attended Mine Specialist School. Going overseas, he landed in New Guinea and then participated in the invasion of Luzon, January 9, 1944. During his tour of duty in the Pacific, Donchez earned the Meritorious Service Wreath, two campaign ribbons and three battle stars.
