

King, Truman

Gets First Stripe

Truman King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman W. King Sr., 822 North School Street, Bethlehem, has been promoted to private first class in the Army Air Corps after not quite three months in the service, according to information received by his parents.

Pfc. King is stationed at an air corps training school in Sioux Falls, S. D. He was inducted April 17 and received his basic training in Greensboro, N. C.

JUL 14 1943
A native of Bethlehem, the young aviation trainee taught music in the Ralph Titlow Music Studio, Allentown, where he instructed students of the guitar. He studied the Spanish guitar under Watts Clarke, former Bethlehem music teacher, now an Army corporal.

Before his induction he played with the Chet Cressman Orchestra of Bethlehem in addition to teaching music. He attended Liberty High School and is a member of St. Paul's Evangelical Church here.

Jul 14, 1943