

Schildt, Edward

New Staff Sergeant

Recently advanced to the rank of Staff Sergeant in one of Uncle Sam's infantry units, Edward Schildt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schildt of 505 Sioux Street, is now stationed "somewhere in England," according to a letter received by his parents. He was inducted into the armed forces January 20, 1942, and received his preliminary training at Camp Wheeler, Ga., and was subsequently assigned to Camp Gordon, Fla., Camp Dix, N. J., and Fort Jackson, N. C.
