

Warrick, Harris

Two Bethlehem Navy
Men Meet In Pacific

RM2/C Warren Strawsnyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Strawsnyder, 323 East Goepf Street, will probably never be paged in a more fantastic manner as the night of March 6, 1945.

According to a letter received by his parents, he was out in the Pacific with other members of the Seventh Amphibious Force when his ship was approached by an LST. The signal man aboard the landing craft inquired whether Radioman Strawsnyder was aboard. Immediately after his ship replied, he climbed aboard a small boat and was taken aboard the LST where he met Harris Warrick, Ph. M. 2/C of 332 East Goepf Street.
