

Dubbs, Donald C.

Leaving For Navy

Three Fountain Hill young men left today for Sampson, N. Y., to enter training in the U. S. Navy. They are Donald C. Dubbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. E. Dubbs, 910 Ostrum Street; Wayne A. Kuppinger, 1033 Broadway, son of John Kuppinger, 1069 Seneca Street, and A. James Homan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Homan, of Pottsville, who is residing with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Schlottman, of West Broad Street, Bethlehem, formerly of 636 Lynn Street.

Mr. Kuppinger, 27, is married to the former Olive Crawford, of Bethlehem. He attended the Fountain Hill schools and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Young Dubbs is a graduate of the Fountain Hill High School, class of 1943. He is 18. His brother, Charles, is serving with the U. S. Infantry in North Africa.

Mr. Homan, 20, is a graduate of the Pottsville High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

The three young men will receive a six weeks' "boot" training at Sampson in order to graduate as second class seamen.

August 19, 1943