REVEAL ENGAGEMENT OF MISS RUTH SANDEL

Oct. 24 1942

Church Organist to Become Bride of Pvt. Norwood O. Wagner, This City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Sandel, of Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, formerly of this city, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, of 5 West Broad Street, to Pvt. Norwood O. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wagner, of 219 West Goepp Street.

MISS RUTH ELIZABETH SANDEL
—Ryan

The engagement was disclosed Friday evening at a card party held at the Hotel Bethlehem. Present were Mesdames Robert Fox, Hary DeLong, William Sitterly, Thomas Fleisher, Donald Wagner, Warren Crouthamel, Frank Sabatino and Charles Burkit, and Misses Augusta Montgomery, Virginia, Miriam and Isabel Parsels, Katherine Beal, Helen Koller, Louise Pomeroy, Mrs. George Wagner, Miss Jane Auger, Miss Ruth Sandel, Mrs. J. Edgar Sandel, of Bethlehem; and Mrs. Percy Swisher, of Easton.

Miss Sandel, who is employed at Huff's Music Store, was the Glee Club and Orchestra accompanist at Bethlehem High School, and was graduated from that school with the Class of 1935. She attended Westminster Choir College in Princeton, N. J., and is now the organist and choir directress of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church in this city. A member of the Lehigh Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, and the Bethlehem Professional Music Teachers Association, Miss Sandel has been a piano teacher for several years.

Pvt. Wagner was graduated from Bethlehem High School in 1930 and prior to his induction in the U. S. Army on June 25, 1942, was employed in the Bethlehem Division office of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company. He is now located at Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, N. Y., in the Ordnance Section.
