

Kichline, Ensign E. S.

At Amphibious Base

Ensign Ernest S. Kichline, USNR, of Quakertown, is stationed at the Atlantic fleet's amphibious training base, Little Creek, Va., training to serve as gunnery officer on an LSM. When he completes preparation at Little Creek, he will depart with his crew to take over a newly built landing ship.

Ensign Kichline entered the Navy in July, 1943. His brother, Harold, is in the Army stationed at Turner Field, Ga. They are the sons of Hiram H. Kichline, 334 Juniper Street, Quakertown.

June 15, 1945