

Fogg, Charles W.

Gets Navy Decoration

Lieut. Charles W. Fogg, formerly of Bethlehem, was recently decorated at Okinawa with the Bronze Star for valor and distinguished service. He was in command of one of the rocket ships and has been at Okinawa since the initial landings. He has also seen action at Kiska, Attu and Kwajalein.

Lieut. Fogg graduated from Bethlehem High School in 1937 and later from Duke University. He enlisted in the Navy in February, 1942.

June 22, 1945