

Klucsik, Frank C.

Bethlehem Man Helps Navy Repair Ships At Pearl Harbor

PEARL HARBOR, T. H.—Working day and night to get the damaged ships back in the fighting line are the men of the Navy Ship Repair Unit. A member of the Pearl

Harbor unit is Frank C. Klucsik, machinist's mate, second class, of Bethlehem, Pa. MAY 3, 1945

Klucsik entered the Navy March 9, 1944, and has been at Pearl Harbor for one year. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Klucsik, live at 216 Webster Street. Before joining the Navy, Klucsik was employed as a machinist by the Philadelphia, Bethlehem & New England Railroad Company in Bethlehem.

May 3, 1945