

Lang, Joseph

Gets Advancement

Joseph Lang, of Bethlehem, is now a private first class in the U. S. Army. He returned to his post at Fort Andrews, Boston, Mass., yesterday after a brief furlough with his family here and found his promotion waiting for him. He was drafted in March of 1942 and has been in Boston since that time with the exception of six weeks spent in Maine. He is a member of the Medical Corps.
