

Figueres, John

Northampton Soldier Dies Of Wounds

FEB 10 1945

Word received from the War Department recently informed Mrs. Anna Figueres, 2167 Washington Avenue, Northampton, that her husband, Private First Class John Figueres, U. S. Infantry, died of wounds received in the battle of Leyte Island, December 11, 1944.

PFC. JOHN FIGUERES

Mrs. Figueres had been informed three days previous to this telegram that her husband had been seriously wounded December 8.

Pfc. Figueres was the son of Mrs. John Figueres, Puerto Rico. He took part in the battles of Guam and Leyte. While in the States he trained at Camp Croft, S. C., and Camp Livingstone, La. He spent one year of his training period on the desert in California. He served overseas ten months.

Mrs. Figueres is the former Anna Gergel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gergel, of the above address. The Figueres were former residents of New York City.

February 10, 1945