

Oscar E. Kibler Earns Discharge

Oscar E. Kibler, motor machinist's mate 2/C, USNR, husband of Mrs. Alice Kibler and son of Mrs. Osborne Kindred, 912 Geissinger St., this city, was discharged Feb. 16 from the Navy at Great Lakes, Ill., under the Navy's point system. Kibler had been stationed at the Naval Mines Warfare Testing Station, Solomons, Md., for the past 20 months.

Mr. Kibler entered the Navy on March 13, 1944, and received boot training at Sampson, N. Y.

Before entering the Navy, he was employed in the machine shop as a foreman at Nazareth Portland Cement Company, Nazareth.