

Bennett, Harold

Sgt. Harold Bennett
Trains Filipino Army
Welding Engineers

Sgt. Harold Bennett, husband of Mrs. Helen A. Bennett, 528 Main Street, is serving as a welder with the 1484th Engineer Maintenance Company, recommended for the Meritorious award for its efficiency in keeping frontline Engineer equipment in first-class shape during the Luzon campaign.

His assignment now is to train Philippine army welders to take over American army maintenance engineer duties. Sgt. Bennett has been overseas nine months and has earned the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon, Luzon campaign star, American Defense ribbon and the Philippine Liberation ribbon.

Nov 27, 1945