

Henry, Samuel J.

Pfc. Samuel J. Henry
Serving in Italy
With Ordnance Unit

Pfc. Samuel J. Henry, son of Mrs. Miriam M. Henry, Bath R. D. 2, has arrived at Leghorn, Italy, and is now assigned to the 78th Ordnance Depot Company, a unit of the Peninsular Base Section, the Army Air Force in Italy. Pfc. Henry entered the Army on November 13, 1944.

After arrival in Naples port, the young soldier was transported to the 7th Replacement Depot for processing according to Army skill and civilian specialty. At the depot, he was provided with bed and mattress, blankets and Post Exchange supplies.

Within 36 hours he boarded a coach train to Leghorn. Enroute he was presented with coffee and doughnuts by the American Red Cross. Upon arrival at his new post, the soldier went to the first staging area to be transported to his assigned unit in the near vicinity.

March 16, 1946