“Lehigh County plans virtual town hall to address coronavirus questions,” Morning Call, April 2.

Want to ask U.S. Rep. Susan Wild or Pennsylvania state officials a question about the coronavirus? Lehigh County residents will have that opportunity Monday in a virtual town hall meeting.

Residents can raise their concerns or just listen to what speakers have to say by signing up for the conference, which is scheduled for 10-11 a.m. Virtual attendees must register for an invitation to the Zoom video call at lehighcounty.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZQvcO-pqDwsKcF\_BOoIzOAOSF83b-xtuw. There are a limited number of spaces.
