

Wolfe, Dorothy

"WAC" of the Week

JUN 21 1944

Cpl. Dorothy Wolfe was nominated "WAC of the Week" by the Flying Times, official post newspaper at Kelly Field, Texas, home of the San Antonio Air Service Command recently. Cpl. Wolfe has been stationed at Kelly Field since May, '43. Since her arrival here, Cpl. Wolfe has been working in the laboratory at the station hospital. For the excellent manner and efficiency with which she has attended to her duties, Cpl. Wolfe was chosen by the Flying Times as the representative of the Kelly Field WAC Detachment as "WAC of the Week." In civilian life, she worked in a photo-lab in Bethlehem. She has two brothers in the service, namely, Bob, who has seen eight months of combat in the South Pacific and Bill, who is now at Fort McClellan, Ala. Her mother, Mrs. Anna Wolfe, lives at 221 Northampton Street, Bethlehem.
