Michael Talnak
Completes Course
As Army Mechanic

1945

Michael Talnak, son of George Talnak, 934 Wood Street, has completed his course of studies as an electrical mechanic in the Army Air Forces Technical Training School, Amarillo, Tex., and is rated as an electrical specialist.

In addition to completion of the schedule of academic and practical studies as an aviation mechanic, he has been thoroughly drilled in military tactics and defense and a course of physical training that has conditioned him to meet all requirements of an American soldier.
