

Dimmick, Ray R.

Meet Off Leyte

SEP 1, 1945

For the past several years Sgt. Ray R. Dimmick of the Army and Kenneth W. Fulmer, Ph. M. 2/c of the Navy, both of Hellertown, have been corresponding with each other in the hope the paths of the Army and Navy would cross so they could meet. This opportunity came recently in the Philippines when Sgt. Dimmick, located on Leyte, in the invasion of which he took part, learned the U. S. S. Otus with Ph.M. Fulmer aboard was anchored off a neighboring island. Through the courtesy of their commanding officers, Sgt. Dimmick was transported by PT boat to the Otus for a visit with PhM Fulmer for an enjoyable two-day holiday recounting experiences, home and Boy Scout activities in which both were interested prior to entering the services.

PhM. Fulmer lives at 844 Juniper Road, where his wife and family now reside and had been a salesman for the Coca-Cola Co. before entering the Navy.

Sgt. Dimmick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Dimmick and was a student at Lehigh University when joining the Army in 1942.

September 1, 1945