

Crockett, John C.

Youngest Bandsman
From Bethlehem

Pfc. John C. Crockett, 20 years old, band stationed at one of the U. S. bases on the South Pacific, the War Department has been informed. He is the youngest member of an Army band stationed at one of the U. S. bases on the South Pacific, the War Department has been informed. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crockett, of 1029 North New Street, Bethlehem, and formerly was employed in a bank in this city. In the Bethlehem High School band he played the trombone, the same instrument which he now uses as his band entertains servicemen and South Seas natives. Private Crockett enlisted in the Army in February, 1942, and received his training at Camp Forrest, Tenn.
