

Edwards, Douglas W.

Captain Douglas W. Edwards, who was stationed on Antigua Island of the West Indies group for the past year and a half as base quartermaster for the U. S. Army, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Edwards, 826 Tombler Street, Fountain Hill, on a 30-day furlough. At the expiration of that time, January 17, he will go to Washington, D. C., to receive further orders.

Captain Edwards was graduated from Lehigh University with the class of 1933. Being affiliated with the R. O. T. C., he was commissioned a second lieutenant. He entered the service three years ago and spent two years at San Juan before being transferred to Antigua, where he had charge of laundries, army properties and acted as judge advocate for the army. He was promoted to the rank of captain last June.

December 18, 1943