

Shurow Jr Frank

Wounded

SEP 19 1944

CPL. FRANK SHUROW

Cpl. Frank Shurow Jr., whose wife, Mrs. Pauline Shurow, with their infant son, resides at 722 Northampton Street, Hellertown, was recently wounded in France and is now being hospitalized in England. Mrs. Shurow, who was formerly Pauline Shestok, received a letter yesterday from a nurse in the English hospital indicating that her husband had received an arm and hand injury, but there were no other details.

Mrs. Shurow resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shestok who have two sons in the service, both with naval forces. One son, Stephen, has recently been advanced to petty officer, and the other, Michael, is in the South Pacific. Their son-in-law has been in the Navy two years.
