

Carothers, Neil

Lieut.-Commander

OCT 11 1945

Lieut. Neil Carothers, USNR, 807 West Market Street, who has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Commander. He is on duty at the Naval Air Station at Patuxent River, Md., as a test pilot.

Lt.-Cmdr. Carothers completed his C. A. A. flying course while an undergraduate at Princeton University. Upon his graduation from Princeton in June, 1941, he was commissioned an ensign. He graduated with honors from the New York University School of Aeronautical Engineering.

October 11, 1945