

Harple, Harry C.

CHURCH WILL HONOR MEMBERS IN SERVICE

Congregation of St. John's
Evangelical to Dedicate Service Flag on Sunday.

A special service will be held in St. John's Evangelical Church on Sunday at 11 a. m., when boys who are members of the congregation and are now in the armed services, will be honored. A service flag, on which has been placed a star for each young man, will be dedicated. The pastor, Rev. A. M. Gottschalk, will speak on the theme, "When the Heart of Humanity Speaks".

The congregation now has four of its boys in service. Walter Danner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Danner, of 334 East North Street, is at the Philadelphia Naval Station. Martin Getz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Getz, 1217 Pine Street, is stationed at Boc Taton, Fla.

Harry C. Harple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harple, of Chelsea Avenue, is at Camp Blanding, Fla.; and Walter F. Kepfer, son of Mrs. Mary Kepfer, 639 Linden Street, is stationed at Fort Eustis, Va.

Jul. 11, 1942