

Pasternak, Anthony

Navy Man Home
From Service Abroad

Fireman First Class Anthony Pasternak traveled from the West Coast to enjoy a furlough with his brother-in-law and sister, Police Officer and Mrs. John Stefanik of 1330 Easton Avenue, and his father, Stanley Pasternak, of Freemans- burg.

He wears service bars, awarded for participation in the invasion of Africa and duty in the South Pacific area.

He has been in the combat service for the past 17 months, enlisting in the navy while a junior at Liberty High School, where he was a member of the junior varsity football squad. He received his early training at the Great Lakes Naval Station at Chicago. He recently completed a course in one of the navy's schools, and within a short time he expects to receive word of another promotion.

SEP 6 1943

September 6, 1943