

Schaffer, James H.

Nazareth Soldier
Now Army Baker
At English Base

JUN 29 1944

A USSTAF AIR SERVICE COMMAND DEPOT (Somewhere in England)—Corporal James H. Schaffer, husband of Evelyn G. Schaffer, 369 East Walnut Street, Nazareth, Pa., is now baking for the "boys" at a large aircraft assembly and repair depot.

A graduate of the Siebel Institute of Chicago, Corporal Schaffer was a baker, previous to his enlistment in the army.

With hundreds of others he is working now on the Air Service Command's night and day schedule to maintain fighters and bombers in the skies over Hitler's forces.

After completing his various military duties throughout the states, Corporal Schaffer sailed for overseas duty, arriving last October.

June 29, 1944