

Smegelski, Frances

Marine Reserve
Recruiting Officer
Here Wednesday

Sgt. Frances Smegelski, recruiting officer for the United States Marine Corps Women's Reserve, will arrive here from Philadelphia and will be at the sub-station opened in the Phillips Music Store, East Third Street, Wednesday for consultation.

The recruiting officer will wear the new forest-green winter uniform of the Marine women and will answer questions on service in this branch of the armed forces. She will be in Bethlehem all day Wednesday and will go from here to the regular recruiting station in the Allentown Post Office building.

November 17, 1943