

Lerchenmiller, George W.

Draft Board No. 3 To Provide 28 Men for Service

JUN 30 1943

Twenty-eight men were accepted for service by Selective Service Board No. 3 as of Monday, according to the report released today by L. R. Drown, clerk. Three were assigned to Army aviation cadet training duty (Air Crew). Ten go into the Navy and one into the U. S. Marine Corps.

Army: George W. Lerchenmiller, 666 Highland Avenue; Sydney John Wormser, 1222 West Union Boulevard; Donald Charles Raub, 2120 Glendale Avenue; Stephen Kucsan R. D. 4, Bethlehem; Earl Kenneth Miller, 320 West Garrison Street; Joseph Herman Goth, 711 Sixth Avenue; Rudolph Kirchmar, Second Avenue; Leslie Frank Siegfried, 2046 West Broad Street; Herbert Joseph Corby, 1033 Spring Street; Joseph Mangan, 532 Thirteenth Avenue; Franklin Lee Collie, 730 Thirteenth Avenue; Gordon Paul Balliet, 819 Miller Street; Edwin John Christman, 428 West Union Boulevard.

Air Corps Cadets: Burton Nelson Coffman, 330 Hanover Street; Sydney Aaron Sosnow, 1003 Spring Street; Lester Kenneth Hendershot, 1204 West Market Street.

Navy: Edward Michael Dugas, 338 Hanover Street; Stanley William Gillen, 624 West North Street; Joseph Paul McBride, 314 Hanover Street; Myron Jacob Luch, 737 Seventh Avenue; John Joseph McCarthy, Jr., 1952 Riverview Road; Harlan Charles Hinkle, 2035 West Broad Street; Frederick Samuel Detweiler, 1034 North Main Street; Louis Elonza Baker, 114 West Market Street; George Frederick Lindenmuth, 428 East Fifth Street; Joseph Gildo Ruggeri, 537 Spring Street.

Marine Corps: James Layton Kautz, 359 Tenth Avenue.

Those for the Army will be called for active duty on July 12 with the exception of Kirchmar, who reported at once. The Air Corps Cadets, the Navy men and the Marine will report on call of the respective services.

Jun. 30, 1943