

Martin, Leonard J.

Gets Wings

Cpl. Leonard J. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin, of 714 Wyandotte Street, observes his first year of service in the U. S. Army Air Force, entering the service August 9, 1943. He received his basic training at Greensboro, N. C.; graduated from airplane mechanic school March 31, at Goldsboro, North Carolina; advanced training followed at the Flexible Gunnery School, Fort Myers, Fla. He was graduated and received his wings June 7, and is now stationed at Tyndall Field, Panama City, Fla. Prior to entering the service Cpl. Martin was employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company in the cafeteria. He attended the Holy Ghost parochial school and the Bethlehem High School.

Aug. 10, 1944