

Hegedus, John

NINE MORE MORAVIAN MEN CALLED BY ARMY

FEB 4 1943

Undergraduates to Report for Duty February 15 at New Cumberland.

Nine more Moravian College undergraduates had terminated their careers at the local institution today after receiving calls to report for duty with the United States Army, at New Cumberland, February 15.

All of the men will report at the college and proceed as a group under the leadership of Ernest Barthol, 1408 Chelsea Avenue, to New Cumberland. All were members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

In addition to Barthol, others are John Hegedus, 1516 East Sixth Street; Harold W. Lowitz, 521 West Broad Street; Paul M. Marcincin, 1629 East Eighth Street; Geza Molnar, 510 Dakotah Street; Robert A. Wagner, 512 South Benner Avenue, all of this city; Walter P. Miller, Brooklyn; Joseph S. Pollicelli, Roseto; Walter R. Schaeffer, Glenolden.

Marcincin is varsity basketball center and Pollicelli played center on the varsity football team.

Three other Moravian College men, in the Air Corps Reserve, received calls earlier to active duty.

Feb 4, 1943