

Leach Jr., Lewis M.

Trains As Army Pilot

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Leach, Sr., of Center Valley, have been notified by the Commanding General of Randolph Field, Texas, that their son, Cadet Lewis M. Leach, Jr., has been selected to take pilot training in the Army Air Force.

Cadet Leach enlisted as a private in the Army last October and later successfully passed the requirements for aviation cadet. He received his appointment in December. He was transferred to the classification center at San Antonio, Texas, in January, where he was selected for pilot training. MAR 13 1943

Cadet Leach was married to Miss Margaret Hartzell of Souderton, in September, 1941. His wife and five-month-old son reside at Souderton.
