

Adams, Thomas L.

Local Girl, Soldier, Wed This Morning

APR 25 1945

The marriage of Miss Gloria Ida Mary Hessinger, 926 Fernwood Street, and Cpl. Thomas Lawrence Adams of the U. S. Army, was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock in St. Anne's Church. The Rev. John J. Burns performed the ceremony.

Mr. Hessinger gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin, with sweetheart neckline and full skirt ending in a long train. Her full length veil of tulle fell from a crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls.

Miss Doris M. Hessinger, maid of honor, sister of the bride, wore a gown of yellow satin with net skirt. Miss Rosemary E. McCaa, Miss Helen Kudzik, Miss Madeline Facchiano and Miss Judy Lazun, the bridesmaids, wore gowns of pink, Alice blue, pink and aqua taffeta, with net skirts. All carried colonial bouquets.

Patrick F. Adams, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man, and Donald A. Weber, cousin of the bride, and Socrates J. Dowanis served as ushers.

The church altar was decorated with white carnations, snapdragons and palms. Miss Laura Kisthardt presided at the organ console and Miss Elizabeth Shimer, the soloist, sang, "Ave Maria", (Carpenter) and "Lord Who At Cana's Wedding Feast", (Browne).

A reception followed the ceremony at the Italian Hall. After a wedding trip to New York, the bride will return to the home of her parents and the bridegroom will return to his base.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius G. Hessinger, attended Liberty High School and is employed by the McCaa Studio. The bridegroom is the son of Francis P. Adams, 1728 Barbara Street, and the late Mary Adams. He attended Liberty High School and is stationed at Camp Perry, O.
