

Rotondo, Salvatore J.
Rotondo, Daniel

Sergeant

Aug 1 1945

Cpl. Salvatore J. Rotondo, 810 Wyandotte Street, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. He entered the armed forces in May 1943, and upon completion of his basic training at Fort Bragg, N. C., was sent to England in February, 1944.

Before leaving Germany for France, a short time ago, he was surprised by a visit from his brother, Cpl. Daniel Rotondo, who is in Germany. It was the first time they had seen each other in over two years.

Sgt. Rotondo was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company and by a local orchestra before entering the service. He is a graduate of Bethlehem High School. The sergeant holds the Good Conduct Medal and a battle participation star for the Battle of the Bulge.
