

King, Woodrow W.
King, Gerald

Lieut. King Expected Home Next Week

First Lieut. Woodrow W. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King of 133 Easton Avenue, is a patient in the Halloran General Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y. and is expected home in about a week. He has been overseas since August, 1942 and served in the North African Invasion. He has suffered with brachial arthritis since this campaign and has been hospitalized for some months.

Mr. and Mrs. King have three sons and two son-in-laws in the service. The one, Corp. Norman A. Rice is serving in India; and Staff

Sgt. Gerald K. King is in the Air Corps somewhere overseas. The others are still in the United States

September 27, 1943