

Stocker, Elmer P.

Gets Promotion In Distant India

SOMEWHERE IN INDIA—Elmer P. Stocker, son of Mrs. Alice Stocker, of Bethlehem, Pa., has been promoted from Private to Private First Class in the Army in distant India. Stocker is a member of the Services of Supply of the United States Army Forces, China-Burma-India.

Before going in the Army in January, 1942, Stocker was employed by Mowrer's Dairy in Bethlehem. After induction he was sent to Camp Lee, Va., for basic training. He also served at Camp Livingstone, La.

Stocker has been stationed overseas in the China-Burma-India theater of operations for more than seventeen months.

February 2, 1944