

Klase, Richard S.

Cpl. Richard S. Klase
Ends Army Service
After Three Years

Cpl. Richard S. Klase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Klase, 713 High St., was honorably discharged at Indiantown Gap after his return from 17 months overseas duty in the Pacific.

Cpl. Klase donned the Army uniform three years ago. He received basic training at Atlantic City, and other military training camps in the States before going overseas with the 13th Supply Unit to Diak Island, off the coast of New Guinea. While there, his duties were that of base engineer. He was later sent to Okinawa and Japan to serve as a cook.

MAR 7 1946

The Corporal returned to the States February 20. A student at Bethlehem Technical High School when he entered the service he intends to resume his studies there. His brother, S/Sgt. Milton Klase, was discharged recently.

Mar. 7, 1946