

Guss, Virginia
Jack

Sister And Brother
Home On Furloughs 24 1943

Virginia E. Guss, pharmacist-mate third class, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Guss, 519 East Twentieth Street, Northampton, will spend a seven-day leave with her parents. Upon her return to her duties, she will report back to Brooklyn, N. Y.

Technical Sergeant Jack Guss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Guss, above address, is spending the holidays with his parents. Sergeant Guss is stationed at Lawson Field, Fort Benning, Ga. He arrived in Philadelphia by plane and will leave for camp on Monday.

December 24, 1943